

I'm not robot

Trainline is Europe's leading platform for train and bus tickets, allowing users to compare prices from over 270 rail and coach companies in the region. Users can purchase tickets easily on their mobile device and make secure payments using PayPal, Visa, or other international payment cards. Prices are available within various timeframes, including outbound travel within seven days, one month, three months, and low fares found by customers. Trainline guarantees the lowest adult economy ticket fare for each booking, with further advance bookings potentially resulting in cheaper prices. Prices are updated daily but may change and do not reflect the last update price. Discount cards and coach journeys are excluded from prices, which also exclude a booking fee. Users can read real reviews from other customers to help inform their travel decisions. One popular route is from London to Zurich by train, with 14 services per day and an average journey time of 10 hours and 7 minutes. The fastest trains on this route take approximately seven hours and 25 minutes, making them a convenient option for travelers. Take the train from London to Zurich Hb without flying. Check our Journey Planner for available times and routes - trains take just over 7 hours, with around 14 daily options. We recommend taking the train, which offers various classes and onboard services. The first train usually departs at 06:01, but check our Planner for specific schedules on your travel day. Trains run frequently throughout the day, with a total of 14 options available daily. In Eurostar Standard, you'll find comfortable seats, free WiFi, and a range of drinks and snacks in the onboard café-bar. You can also store luggage and use power sockets. If you upgrade to Eurostar Plus, you'll get a light meal served at your seat for trips to/from London, as well as comfier seating. For an even more luxurious experience, choose Eurostar Premier, which offers same-day boarding, exclusive lounges (where available), and complete comfort. You'll enjoy a free meal and drinks at your seat, as well as access to a gourmet hot meal on UK-bound trains. Alternatively, consider Second Class with TGV INOUI, which provides comfortable travel with onboard services like free WiFi, power sockets, and adjustable seats. If you want to travel in style, upgrade to First Class for additional benefits. Eurostar Train Class and Amenities Enjoy comfy seats with power sockets, fold-down tables, and free WiFi in Second Class. Some IC trains are double decker trains (IC2). Upgrade to First Class for Fast Track in some German stations, free access to DB lounges, catering service, more legroom, and lounge access. In addition to amenities in Second Class, First Class offers a bistrò carriage, entertainment portal, restaurant, and SingleFast track. For UK-bound trains, choose from a selection of drinks and snacks at the Eurostar Café. Eurostar Plus features a light meal and drink, while Premier offers gourmet meals and continuous drinks service. Child travel is free on Eurostar trains for children under 4 when accompanied by an adult. Alternative options include buying a child ticket or occupying family-oriented seating. You can take fully assembled bikes on Eurostar trains from London to Brussels, but check with them for details. Foldable bikes are allowed too, as long as they fit in a protective bag and aren't bigger than 85 cm. Non-foldable bikes can be taken apart and stored in a cover on some other Eurostar trains in Europe. Don't forget, foldable bikes count towards your luggage limits. For pets, it depends on where you're going - check before you travel. If you're heading to the UK, no pets are allowed except guide dogs or assistance dogs that must be reserved and stay with their owner. In the rest of Europe, small pets under 6 kg can come for free if they fit in a cage, but larger ones need a ticket. Guide dogs and assistance dogs always travel for free. If you need special help getting on or off the train, contact Eurostar before your trip. They'll assist you. If you're traveling to/from the UK, arrive an hour early and go to the Eurostar Assist desk or ask staff. Wheelchair users can reserve a space in Premier class, and someone can come with them at a discount. In Europe, electric wheelchairs are allowed on trains, but not combustion engine-powered ones. Liquids are okay, but check the rules on alcohol - it's 4 beers or wine per person, no big bottles of spirits. You can bring golf bags up to 120 x 35 cm and tents if they're small enough. Check with a courier service for large quantities of anything. You are allowed to bring certain items on board TGV INOUI trains, while others have restrictions. Here are some guidelines: Bags and cases: Only bags or cases under 85 cm long are permitted. Camping gear: Camping gas or butane bottles are not allowed, but camping utensils with blades less than 75 mm long can be brought along. Sports equipment: Bats, snooker or pool cues, and darts can be carried as long as they're stored in a protective case. Luggage: TGV INOUI trains have limited luggage space. You can bring up to 2 pieces of luggage measuring no more than 70 x 90 x 50 cm each, plus one hand luggage measuring no more than 40 x 30 x 15 cm. Larger items can be stored in the large luggage racks by the doors. Food and drink: The train has a café-bar carriage offering food and drinks at any time of day. Entertainment: TGV INOUI trains have free WiFi for passengers to use during their journey. Travel with children: Children under 12 get a half-price ticket, while those under 4 travel for free when accompanied by an adult. Bicycles: Foldable bicycles can be taken on as hand luggage or transported in a cover/case. Non-folding bikes need a reserved space on the train and cost €10 per bike. Small pets: Small pets weighing less than 10kg can travel in a carrier, while larger dogs require a muzzle and lead for the journey. Disability assistance: Passengers with disabilities can request assistance through 'Accès Plus' before booking their tickets. You can enjoy your meals in the bistro or take them back to your seat on IC trains, with complimentary food and drink available in First Class. The menu changes every three months but offers a variety of local dishes, including vegetarian and vegan options. Free WiFi is available on certain IC trains, while all IC trains will have it installed soon. On DB's IC trains, children under 5 travel for free, and those up to 14 with an accompanying adult do as well. Family and children areas are available onboard. Bicycle tickets must be reserved in advance, but this cost is included in the price. Bike storage spaces are usually located in second class carriages. Pets are allowed on IC trains, but dogs over a certain size require a separate ticket. Deutsche Bahn's Mobility Service offers assistance for passengers with disabilities or mobility issues. Staff can help with boarding and disembarking, as well as answer questions and provide assistance during the journey. There is no luggage size limit, but it must be stored under the seat or in the overhead rack. On DB's ICE trains, you'll find an extensive menu in the restaurant, or snacks available for purchase from the bistro carriage. The menu changes every three months but still offers a range of local options. Free WiFi and entertainment are also available on ICE trains. You can book family areas and child compartments on all ICE trains. When traveling with a bike, you'll need a bicycle ticket and a reservation, which is included in the initial price. Bike storage spaces are usually found in second-class carriages. Please note that your seat and bike storage area might be located in different wagons. For pet travel, there's no additional fee if your dog fits in a transport box. However, if it's bigger than a house cat, you'll need an extra ticket, which is 50% cheaper than the standard fare. Dogs in transport boxes must remain on a lead and wear a muzzle. Assistance dogs travel for free without needing a muzzle. Special Assistance services can help with boarding, disembarking, or changing trains. The staff are also happy to answer any questions or provide assistance during your journey. The company assists over 172,000 customers across Europe every day.

London to zurich train fare. Does eurostar go to zurich. London to zurich train time. Zürich london. London to zurich train cost. Zurich to london train.